

King
David
a man after God's own heart

A man just like us

David- shepherd boy

- Man looks at the outward appearance but God looks at the heart.
- As a shepherd boy David had become a pursuer of God- a worshipper.
- Let God be near in the 'ordinary'
- David loved God's word.
- He had a repentant heart.

Because David did what was right in the eyes of the Lord and did not turn aside from anything that he commanded him all the days of his life, except in the matter of Uriah the Hittite.

‘How dare this Philistine defy the armies of the living God?’

David had already proved God in smaller ways.

The Cave of Adullam
(refuge)

a place of change

All those who were in distress or in debt or discontented... became David's mighty men

“The world has yet to see what God can do through a man who is totally yielded to Him.”
